CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The National Asthma Educator Certification Board (NAECB) is seeking nominations for candidates to fill six Board of Director positions for the 2010 – 2012 term.

In accordance with the NAECB bylaws, the Nominating Committee must develop and present a list of nominees to the entire board for a vote by our certificants each fall. Therefore, we need your assistance in identifying individuals that you believe would be an asset to the board of directors. Those nominated should:

- Be able and willing to serve on the Board of Directors
- Be dedicated to quality in asthma education
- Submit a completed nominations application packet

To maintain the board's professional diversity, we are looking for healthcare professionals and other individuals interested and involved in asthma education. This year, we are in particular need of applicants in the following areas:

Behavioral science/behavioral health

Nursing – (LPN or RN or NP)

Respiratory Therapy – (CRT or RRT or CPFT)

1000 hour asthma educator

Potential board members are strongly encouraged to have attained the certified asthma educator (AE-C[®]) designation. Examples of additional skills or experiences that would be beneficial for potential board members to have include, but are not limited to: Public Relations & Marketing, moderating/facilitating strategic planning, credentialing/exam development/item writing, fundraising expertise, legal acumen and business development. The NAECB does not discriminate based on religion, sex, gender, disability, or race. Past board experience and national recognition will also be helpful in serving on the NAECB.

To be considered for a board position, you must complete the application form that can be accessed by clicking on the link, below. You may recommend yourself or another individual, but must be returned by August 15, 2009. Applications can also be found on our website at www.naecb.org.

Sincerely,

Antoinette Gardner, RN, MEd, AE-C
Chair, Nominating Committee
